

Would Furnish Army Flag.

Quackenbush Post, G. A. R., has requested the privilege of furnishing the first flag to float over the new armory.

Malleables Win.

The Malleables foot ball team defeated the Durand Independents, Sunday, at D & C. park 25 to 0. Carl Burkhardt of the Owosso team was seriously injured, his knee cap being broken.

More Speed Victims.

Charles Barrows turned over $38 to Justice Nichols and Leslie Corey paid $18 to Justice McBride, Monday, for speeding on the road north of Owosso, Saturday evening. The men are from Oakley.

More Speeders Pay the Fiddler.

Friday complaints were made by Sheriff Griffin against Otto Leader of Perry, and R. L. Blackmore of Chesaning, for speeding north of Owosso, and were fined $25 and $24 respectively, including costs.

Save the Liquor.

The liquor confiscated when arrests for violation of the liquor law are made in the future, will be sent to the county farm for use for medicinal purposes instead of being destroyed as has been the custom.

Will Not Appeal.

The case of James Flanigan against M. A. Herrick of Owosso, will not be appealed. Mr. Herrick Saturday paid over $400, the amount of the judgment rendered in the circuit court in an automobile damage case. S. Q. Pulver represented Mr. Flanigan.

Y. W. C. A. Party.

The Y. W. C. A. Halloween party was held Tuesday evening at the association rooms, about fifty members dressed in fancy costumes attending. A prize was awarded Misses Ivah Scott and Favor Armstrong who were dressed as the Gold Dust Twins.

Falls From Roof.

Charles Morton of Pontiac, who has been in Owosso on business, fell from the roof of his house on West Main street, Monday, fracturing two ribs and suffering internal injuries. He was taken to the home of Fred Morton and is resting easily.

Burr-Lahay.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Burr and Thomas Lahay occurred in Detroit, Monday, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Burr. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lahay are well known here. The groom has been chief dispatcher at the Ann Arbor offices for some time. Friends extend congratulations.

Strike Flowing Well.

The testers for the Consolidated Coal Co. of Saginaw, who are going over land in several townships in the county in an effort to find coal, struck a flowing well on the John Y. Martin farm last week. Coal was found in many places but the veins are not of sufficient depth for profitable mining.

Corcoran-Mahoney.

The marriage of Mrs. Stacey Corcoran and Thomas Mahoney of Rush township, was solemnized Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, the bride's son and wife. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney are well and favorably known. Friends extend congratulations.

Stichler-Olcott.

Miss Edith Stichler of Perry, and Floyd Olcott of E. Lansing, were united in marriage Wednesday in Owosso at the Baptist parsonage. They were attended by D. P. Hinchey and Miss Daisy Moore. The groom is an electrician at the Michigan Agricultural college and the bride is one of the popular young ladies of Perry. Mr. and Mrs. Olcott will reside in E. Lansing.

Death of Daniel F. Bihlmer.

Daniel F. Bihlmer, a well known and highly respected pioneer resident of Shiawassee county, passed away at his home south of the city, Tuesday morning, after suffering many months with hardening of the arteries. The funeral was held from the home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. A. Waite pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. He was born in Mt. Pleasant, Pa., eighty years ago and had made his home in this vicinity since 1864. Besides a widow deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. N. E. McKenzie of Pontiac; Mrs. G. W. Travis of Topeka, Kan.; two sons, Grand of Kansas City, Mo., and C. M. Bihlmer of Corunna and five brothers, E. W. J. F. A. M., and F. B. Bihlmer of Shiawassee county and C. S. Bihlmer of Irwin, Pa.

Machinists Ball.

The second annual ball of the Machinists lodge held at the Odd Fellow temple Tuesday evening was a most enjoyable affair, seventy-five couples and a large number of spectators being in attendance. The music furnished by Logan's orchestra of Lansing, of which several former Owosso men are members, was of a high class.

Small Court Calendar.

The November circuit court calendar is the smallest in several years following the largest calendar in September, much of the pending litigation being cleaned up by Judges Miner and Gilday in the last two months. The criminal calendar is unusually small because so many local option violators and other offenders have come into court and plead guilty.

Terms of Court.

Judge Miner has fixed the time for holding the several terms of the circuit court in Shiawassee county for the years 1916 and 1917 as beginning on the fourth Monday in January; the first Monday in May; the first Monday in September and the second Monday in November. This brings the September term forward two weeks and the November term forward one week.

Given Chautauqua Salute.

The Woman's club at its meeting last week gave Mrs. Maude Thompson the Chautauqua salute, an honor seldom conferred, and only in recognition of some excellent work. Mrs. Thompson has been selected by the state federation with an appointment as speaker for the federation. Mrs. Thompson will serve on the educational committee of the state organization.

Gives Husband Divorce.

Judge Miner gave Lavon J. Fattal of Owosso, a divorce Tuesday, allowing him to keep the oldest child, the baby going to the mother who is now living with her parents at Portland, Mich. The testimony in the case was a story of infidelity on both sides, including several men and women of Owosso. The father must pay one dollar a week toward the support of the youngest child for five years and $1.50 after that.

Establish Lansing Branch.

Rundell Brothers of this city, have established a Lansing branch in charge of Arthur Seeds, formerly of Owosso, to handle their ever increasing produce and poultry business. They buy from a large area and handle immense quantities of butter, eggs and poultry, much of which is sent to Owosso and reshipped. The Lansing branch will increase the firm's ability to properly handle the increasing business.

Enjoyable Party.

The first of the Elks' parties for the season was given Friday evening and was highly enjoyable. The dances were mostly waltzes and two steps, none of the extreme new dances being on the program. A lunch was served and excellent music was furnished by Morehouse's orchestra. It is probable the parties for Elks only with one or two large parties with general invitations, will be continued every other week throughout the winter.

Honor State Regent.

The Shiawassee Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was host at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. F. H. Gould, Tuesday, in honor of State Regent Mrs. Wm. H. Wait of Ann Arbor. Fifty members and guests were present, the luncheon being served by Misses Nan Todd, Emma Lawrence, Florence Ward, Lena Gould and Marian Davis. Following the serving Miss Florence Mack sang a solo accompanied by Miss Lena Gregory on the piano. Mrs. Wait then gave a most scholarly and interesting address on "Our New Patriotism."

Death of Mrs. Lucinda Miller.

Mrs. Lucinda Miller passed away Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock at her home, 217 East King street. The funeral was held Thursday, Rev. H. A. Waite officiating. Mrs. Miller was born in the state of New York eighty five years ago, and had made her home in this city for the past twenty-six years, coming here from Livingston county. Although she had suffered for the past few years with infirmities of age, Mrs. Miller's condition was not considered dangerous until last Wednesday when she suffered a stroke of paralysis from which time she gradually declined until the end. Mrs. Miller was favorably known in this vicinity and was beloved by a wide circle of warm friends. She was a member of the Baptist church. Deceased is survived by four children: Mrs. Wellington Ege, Mrs. Flora Dunham, E. M. Miller of this city, and W. B. Miller of Toledo, Ohio.

Mexican War Veteran.

Albert Church of Detroit, is the guest of his niece Mrs. William Brands, of Corunna, for a few days. Mr. Church is one of the few remaining veterans of the Mexican war of 1849. Although he is 87 years old he is in excellent health, and is still able to read today without glasses. Mr. Church has resided in Detroit for a number of years, although he formerly resided in this county.

ANOTHER FINE VICTORY.

Owosso High School Team Defeats Indian School Boys.

Owosso football enthusiasts were much elated over the victory scored Saturday by the high school team over the Mt. Pleasant Indian school team. That school always has a hardy, heavy and well trained team, and this year was no exception, but the Owosso boys were too strong for them and won 38 to 7. A big crowd witnessed the game and cheered every good play. No penalties were imposed and the game was free of unnecessary roughness. Every Owosso player helped to win the game.

80th Birthday Observed.

In honor of the 80th birthday anniversary of George B. McClellan, East Main street, Mrs. McClellan pleasantly entertained their immediate relatives Friday. A delicious dinner was served and Mrs. McClellan presented Mr. McClellan with a handsome gold ring bearing the Masonic emblem, and his son, John, gave him a sterling silver flashlight to be used in his duties at the Masonic temple. Mr. McClellan, who has been a Mason for 46 years, has given faithful and efficient service in charge of the Masonic temple here for some time past. As a token of their regard and esteem, the members of Owosso Lodge No. 81, F. & A. M., presented him with a beautiful gold-headed cane with "F. & A. M., No. 81," engraved on the handle.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Moreau.

Mrs. Sarah Moreau died at the home of W. S. Harding in Corunna shortly before midnight, Tuesday. Mrs. Moreau had been in poor health for several months but death was unexpected, and due to a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Moreau was the wife of George Moreau. They were spending a few days at the Harding home, awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Lottie Fish, Mrs. Moreau's sister from Detroit. They expected to return to Detroit soon with Mrs. Fish to spend the winter, as Mr. Moreau has also been in rather poor health for some time.

The deceased was 76 years old, and was the daughter of the late John N. Ingerson, a former Corunna publisher, Mr. and Mrs. Moreau had resided on West Mack street in Corunna for about 40 years.

Death of Augustus Abel.

Following an illness of several months Augustus Abel passed away Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at his home, 533 Garfield avenue. The funeral was held from the home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. E. W. Foster, pastor of the Corunna Avenue M. E. church officiating. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. Abel was feeling much improved Monday and in the afternoon started from the home on his bicycle. It is thought he was stricken with paralysis while riding, for he fell from his wheel striking on his head. He was taken to his home where he expired a short time later.

Mr. Abel was born in Cato, Wayne county, N. Y., Oct. 7, 1839, and had lived in this vicinity for forty years. Besides his wife, deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Swarthout of Elsie, and Mrs. Cory Perry of Lansing, and two brothers, J. Q. Abel of this city and C. W. Abel of Denver, Colo.

Death of Mrs. William Briggeman.

Mrs. William Briggeman aged 52 years, died suddenly at her home four miles north of Owosso, Monday night. She had suffered some attacks of heart failure but her death was a shock to family and friends. The funeral services were held Thursday at 12:30 at the home and at 3 o'clock at Salems Lutheran church, Rev. T. G. Hahn officiating.

Frederika Rose was born in Germany September 14, 1863, and came to this country when she was 19 years of age. She had made her home in the vicinity of Owosso for many years. She was a member of Salems Lutheran church. She leaves beside her husband, the following children: William of Detroit, Ernest, Erwin, Theodore, Paul and Tillie, who reside at home and Miss Elsie of this city. Four sisters, Mrs. Jacob Barry, Mrs. Emil Herlin, Mrs. Charles Wortman and Mrs. Charles Meier, all of Owosso, and one brother Fred Rose, of this city also survive.

Will Contract With Physician.

The board of supervisors on Friday voted to instruct the supervisors of Corunna and Caledonia township to employ a physician at a stated salary to look after all indigent contagious and indigent sick people in that city and township. The physician will furnish all medicine and do all minor surgical operations. The contract will be similar to the one now in force with Dr. Watts covering Owosso city territory. The physicians' bills presented during the past year, running into hundreds of dollars, with the added expense of food, clothing and other articles, which seemed unreasonable and an injustice to the people of Shiawassee county who were paying their own bills made the action a necessity.

New Work and Officers.

The Galilean class of the First M. E. church held a largely attended meeting Monday evening. The work of the class is to be broadened by adopting certain features of the Methodist Brotherhood plan. Five committees are added, the executive, religious work, social service and civic righteousness, fellowship and membership.

After the election of officers and a report by W. J. Blood of the Laymen's convention in Detroit, a social hour was enjoyed. Following are the officers elected: Teacher, Rev. Hartley Cansfield; president, John R. Hughes; vice president, Jacob Spiess; secretary, W. H. Launstein; treasurer, J. D. Stuart; chairman religious work, C. L. Pattee; chairman social service and civic righteousness, Roy D. Matthews; chairman fellowship, C. W. Jennings; chairman membership, J. D. Relf; chairman reception, E. F. Wallace; musical director, Harold Vogel.

New Lothrop.

Born, to Mr and Mrs O J Walworth on Sunday, a son—Floyd Mitchell was in Flint last week receiving treatment for his eyes—Grover Cronk who has been in Flint for the past several weeks, expects to move there—The farmers are busy these days delivering their sugar beets. The crop is a good one in this locality—Jas McNally who has been cooking at the Colby house, left Monday for Clare where he has accepted a position—The quarantine has been raised here and church services were resumed again on Sunday and the schools opened Monday—Ray Ellis of Venice, J Brenner of New Haven and J W Northwood of this township have been drawn as jurors for the November term of circuit court which opens Monday 15—Mrs H T White entertained the Literary club Wednesday evening. The decorations were appropriate to Halloween and the program and amusements were of this nature also. Refreshments were served—The following from this place will leave next week on a hunting trip to Northern Michigan: Dr O B Fritch, Walter Colby, John Walworth, Francis Brown, M A Augustine, George and Hiram Jacobs, Fred Lyons, Walter Judd, Rolfe, Arthur Hanchett, Grant Smith and Guy Horton.

Free Until 1916.

Have you subscribed yet for the Youth's Companion for 1916? Now is the time to do it, if you are not already a subscriber, for you will get all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1915 free from the time your subscription with $2.00 is received.

The fifty-two issues of 1916 will be crowded with good reading for young and old. Reading that is entertaining but not "wishy-washy." Reading that leaves you, when you lay the paper down, better informed, with keener aspirations, with a broader outlook on life. The Companion is a good paper to tie to if you have a growing family—and for general reading, as Justice Brewer once said, no other is necessary.

If you wish to know more of the brilliant list of contributors, from our ex-President down, who will write for the new volume in 1916, and if you wish to know something of the new stories for 1916, let us send you free the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for 1916 will receive, in addition to this year's free issues, The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass. New Subscriptions Received at this Office.

Harry Oik of Owosso township, suffered a broken leg, Thursday afternoon, when caught in a cave-in at the Peterson gravel pit southwest of Owosso. He was working on the roads under Commissioner Harry Byerly.

Wellington White has returned to the city from a stay of several months in Massachusetts.

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES

All Parts of Country Express Wish For Change to the Party's Policies.

The elections Tuesday in various states, congressional districts and cities were all highly satisfactory to the grand old party and discomfiting to the present administration. Massachusetts elected Samuel W. McCall as governor over Governor Walsh, who defeated McCall last year; a gain of a republican congressman in New York and the election of three other republican congressmen by large majorities, the election of republican mayors in Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Cleveland and many of the larger cities; the close contest for governor, yet undecided, in democratic Kentucky; a most general return of progressives to the republican party are signs of the times that the people want to return to protection and prosperity.

Philatheas Meet.

The Baptist Philatheas held an enjoyable business and social meeting Tuesday evening, with Mrs. George Posthumus, Ridge street. Twenty members were present. Refreshments were served.

Plans for the penny social next Tuesday evening were completed and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. C. Rentschler. Vice Pres.—Mrs. Verna Posthumus. Secretary—Miss Rose Thrift. Assistant Secy.—Miss Wilmina Cummings. Treasurer—Mrs. Pearl Pulver.

Death of Mrs. C. A. Towne.

Mrs. Maude Wiley Towne, wife of Hon. Chas. A. Towne, formerly a resident of this city, died suddenly last night at the Hotel St. James in New York of a cerebral hemorrhage. Mrs. Towne was well known in Owosso, having frequently visited here.

BURTON

Rev J D Young of Perry, was in town Monday, calling on old friends—Mrs M G Eldridge and family have moved to Owosso, where they will make their future home—G L VanDyne of Washington, D. C., was the guest of Mr and Mrs G C Rogers one day last week—Mrs E W Mason and son Elwood, were the guests of friends and relatives in Lansing part of last week—Mrs Calvin Gordon and daughter Francis, attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Martha Tucker, in Detroit, last week—Mrs Stanley Krauth of Henderson, was in town Monday, calling on friends—Miss Inez Cramer of Lapeer, was home for a few days last week, visiting her sister and family, Mr and Mrs U G Stiff—Mrs Ida Cadz of Ionia, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs A E Cadz—Mr and Mrs Perry Kinsman of Lansing, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr and Mrs Frank Wright—Miss Edith Gordon is spending two weeks with friends in Bad Axe—Mrs G M Midard of Owosso, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr and Mrs F E Kinsman—Rev B C Wallace of Owosso, will conduct communion services in the M E church, Sunday afternoon—A pageant, "The Call of the Far East," will be given by the Missionary Society of the M P church, Tuesday evening, Nov. 9, in the church. Don't miss it. It will be worth coming to see—The first quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held Saturday and Sunday, in the M H church. Pon are welcome to attend.

Lansburg

Mildred Lackey fell on Friday last while gathering eggs in the barn, spraining her ankle and wrist very badly—Rev W T Hinzmann returned Saturday from New Haven, Conn., where he attended the National council of Congregational churches as a delegate—Floyd Curtis visited relatives at Ann Arbor over Sunday—Misses Minnie Simmons and Ethel Millett visited the former's brother near St. Johns over Sunday, after attending the teachers convention at Saginaw—Seth Bennett and daughter Luella, visited relatives at Eagle over Sunday—Dr C W Baldwin of Flint, occupied the M E pulpit Sunday evening—Mrs R C Phelps spent last week with her brother at Saginaw—Mr and Mrs H W Clayton of Detroit, visited the latter's parents, Dr and Mrs Arthur Scott over Sunday—Mr and Mrs G N Albright, Mr and Mrs C B Crook motored to Grand Lodge, Sunday, to visit friends—Mrs Julia Houghton is visiting her children at Lansing—John Monroe has sold his farm to J Powers and will soon come to town to reside—Mr and Mrs Wm Smith spent Monday with relatives at Carson City—Miss Clark of Northville, was the guest of Mrs D D Nagle over Sunday.

Enthusiastically for State-Wide Prohibition.

Shiawassee county was represented by more than one hundred citizens at the meeting held in Lansing, Tuesday, to provide an organization and formulate plans for a campaign to put Michigan in the list of prohibition states at the election in November, 1916. Large delegations were present from all parts of the lower peninsula to give their endorsement to the movement which they earnestly believe can be pushed to a successful issue and for which they are ready to begin work at once. Petitions asking for the submission of the constitutional amendment are being signed all over the state and there can be no question but that sufficient names will be secured to comply with the law. The main address of the gathering was made by ex-Congressman Hobson of Alabama, stirring the great audience of six thousand persons to a determination to win the fight to make Michigan dry. Rev. B. G. Mattson of this city, one of the speakers at the morning session, made a decided impression upon his hearers. A. B. Cook of Owosso, was one of the banquet speakers. J. N. McBride of Burton, and D. M. Christian of Owosso, are members of the 8th district committee.

Jurors for Circuit Court.

Following is a list of jurors chosen for the November term of court: Nicholas A. Goodyear, Owosso, 3d ward.

James Archer, Owosso, 3d ward. Floyd Calkins, Owosso, 3d ward. John Brown, Owosso, 3d ward. Lew Graham, Owosso, 4th ward. Mark Zimmerman, Owosso, 4th ward. George Marshall, Owosso, 5th ward. Wm Schaaf, Owosso, 5th ward. John R. Kelley, Owosso, 1st ward. Ed Eddington, Perry. L. E. Williams, Rush. Geo. Putnam, Shiota. Jay Topping, Shiawassee. Ray Ellis, Venice. J. C. Obert, Vernon. Ray Foland, Woodhull. Hugh Godfrey, Antrim. Samuel Lake, Bennington. Henry Gulick, Burns. Wm. Crampton, Caledonia. Erwin Williams, Corunna, 1st ward. C. F. Keelin, Corunna, 3d ward. Burk Nickels, Corunna, 3d ward. Frank Allen, Fairfield. John W. Northwood, Hazelton. Jonah Cook, Sr., Middlebury. J. Brenner, New Haven. Julius Shultz, Owosso township.

Death of Dennis Corcoran.

Dennis Corcoran, aged 79 years, one of the best known and popular residents of Shiawassee county for nearly fifty years, died at his home in this city Thursday morning, after an illness of fifteen months. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Slane officiating.

Mr. Corcoran was born in Ireland, coming to America when twenty-seven years of age and four years later to Venice township. His first wife died in 1873. He remarried and was again bereaved and again married. After the death of his third wife he moved to Owosso and sold his farm, marrying Mrs. Anna Pierce, who with six of his nine children survive. The children are John of Owosso, Mrs. Ella Ford of Detroit, Miss Agnes Hicks of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Sophia Melbiser of Perry, Henry of Muskegon, Mrs. Hattie Safford of Shafisburg.

Mr. Corcoran was a most interesting man, his ready wit, his ideas on public questions and his faith in his church and the Democratic party, with his ability to express his ideas made him a welcome visitor everywhere. He will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

W. M. Kilpatrick of Ann Arbor, was in the city Monday evening to attend the meeting of the directors of the Owosso Savings Bank and on Tuesday left for Eatey on business.

Hon. J. W. Fordney with a party of friends from Saginaw and near-by points will leave Saturday evening for their annual deer hunt of two weeks in the northern peninsula.

Charles W. Shipman, former county treasurer, and one of the popular residents of Venice township, suffered a broken leg Wednesday when he fell from a hay mow in his barn. His early recovery is hoped for by his many friends throughout the county.

Carl A. Ross, aged 21, of Detroit, waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court Wednesday by Justice Nichols on a charge of robbing the home of Mrs. Amelia Davis in Owosso of $10 and a razor. Cyrus Alderman, aged 80 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eva Dearing, in Perry, Thursday morning. The funeral will be held Saturday at 1:30 P. M.